- B. Membership Subcommittee
- C. Strategic Review Subcommittee.
Will present in February
- D. Technical Review Subcommittee.
Jody Barker will be finishing the Carryover process in February.
- E. AAA Director's Report
Jody Barker noted that on the federal level the Older Americans Act was not reauthorized so we remain with a continuing resolution. On the state level, area agencies on aging were told to plan for a 10% budget cut and this news was passed on to providers at the quarterly meeting. The state surveys for service will go in February to clients with responses due May 15. The State Unit on Aging will also be conducting audits. Brothers Redevelopment is the only in-person audit. Others are desk audits.
- F. RAC Chair Report

7. Discussion Items

- A. RAC Travel Meetings
RAC will plan to travel to Park, Teller, Monument and Fountain beginning in June.
- B. Coordination with Pikes Peak Commission on Aging
Melissa Marts shared the PPCOA has working groups for caregiving, housing and transportation, social engagement and digital access. There are many opportunities for the RAC and PPCOA to share information and collaborate so the executive committees of both will meet quarterly to share information
